FEBRUARY 2026 ISSUE 02

EDITOR'S DESK

February, though the shortest month, was filled with love, connection, and meaningful encounters. Through various activities, we witnessed meaningful expressions of care, fellowship, and service that reflected the heart of Christ. We also celebrated a fruitful Ministry Fair, and we pray that many will be inspired to step forward, discover their calling, and joyfully serve the Lord with commitment and passion.

Enjoy reading this issue, and we'll see you in March as we step boldly into our Mission Month.

IN HIS THRONE

PRAYER & THANKSGIVING CORNER

Abigail Cabanatan

I thank God for His faithful provision in our lives. Even in seasons of uncertainty, He has supplied our needs, answered my prayers, and sustained me with peace. I'm grateful that He is always in control—working behind the scenes, guiding my steps, and turning challenges into blessings. Today, I give thanks because I know His plans are good, and His faithfulness never fails.

ChelOgie Camacho-Suitos

Riel and Jellie Salamat

Thank You, Lord, for healing my son, Johan Sebastian, from intussusception. You carried us through our fear and gave him healing without the need for open surgery. We are so grateful for Your protection and mercy. Please continue to pray for Seb, for continuous recovery, and let this illness never return.

"Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God."

DCRM LOVE MONTH

A United Heart in Action: Highlights from DCRM's
"One Heart, A Family Act of Love Shared thru Giving"

DCRM successfully conducted its February project from the 13th–28th across all worship celebrations. This year, Family Act of Love brought a meaningful shift from the usual gift-giving tradition by encouraging intentional, family-centered generosity for those in need. Through voluntary and prayerful participation, families strengthened their faith and unity beyond financial support. The project received AED 3,250 in pledges, which will aid brethren and communities affected by calamities. We sincerely thank everyone who supported this heartfelt initiative.

SALT LOVE FELLOWSHIP

On 21st February, the SALT Ministry, in partnership with the Family Builders Ministry, hosted the SALT Love Talk at The Evangelical Church. Thirty-two participants attended, including FCC singles, married couples, and one non-FCC guest. Invited couples, Mr. and Mrs. Dawa and Mr. and Mrs. Calo, responded to heartfelt questions from hosts Bro. Gelo and Sis. Pamela and the audience, inspiring all to pursue Christ-centered, lasting relationships. The engaging talk show created a joyful atmosphere that everyone truly enjoyed.

SSM

RIDE, RUMBLE & RUN

The Social and Sports Ministry once again organized its Ride, Rumble, and Run event at Al Hudayriyat Island. Held over two consecutive weeks on the 14th and 21st, the activity gathered FCC members for meaningful fellowship through biking, running, and walking. More than promoting physical fitness, the event strengthened friendships, fostered unity, and encouraged everyone to embrace a healthier, more active lifestyle while enjoying God's creation together.

LOVE CONNECTS. LOVE INVITES. LOVE GROWS.

THIS LOVE MONTH, WE CELEBRATE HEARTS DRAWN CLOSER TO GOD AND ONE ANOTHER.

From February 13–15, the FCC Connect Ministry hosted "Connect Weekend" after the worship celebrations near the church entrance. Though simple in setup, the initiative carried a clear and heartfelt purpose: to personally reach members not yet involved in a Bible Study group. Through warm conversations and intentional invitations, the team encouraged connection and spiritual growth. Praise God, three brethren responded and are now connected to two Bible Study groups, taking meaningful steps toward deeper community and faith.

Tulang Halaw Ni Ben

Anong hiwaga mayroon ang puso
Walang humpay sa pagtibok ng husto
Pintiga ay wala sa patid, ayaw lumikha
Pahinga ay mala sa bokabularyo.

Anong hiwaga ang sa puso'y bumabalot
Binabata buhay na masalimuot
Pilit kinakaya batbat ng sakit at gusot
Waring mga ugat ay hindi nalalagot.

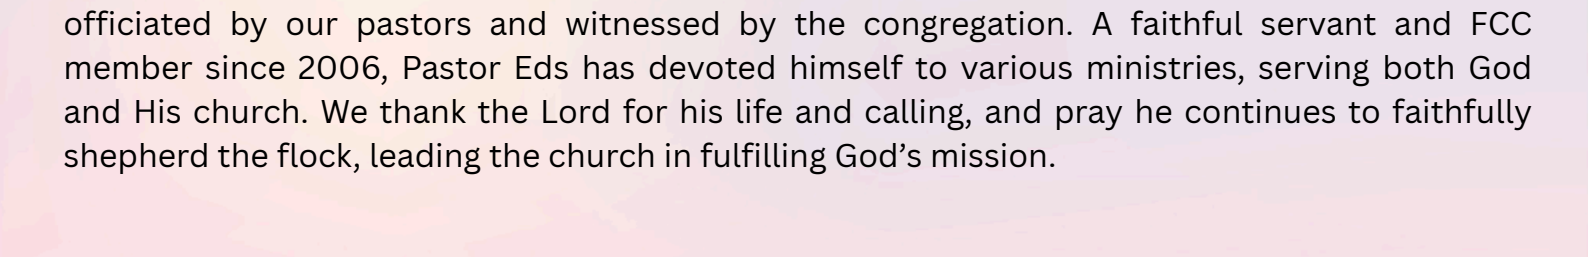

Gaano kahiwaga pusong sisidlan
Lahat ng lihim, kasya kayang ilaman
Ligtas mga bagay ayaw mong malaman
Mananatili sa magpakailanman.

Gaano kahiwaga pusong nilikha
Di hamak na malaki sa dilang dakila
Kasya ang Dios sa lahat ay lumikha
Na Siyang dapat laman ng pusong mapagbata.

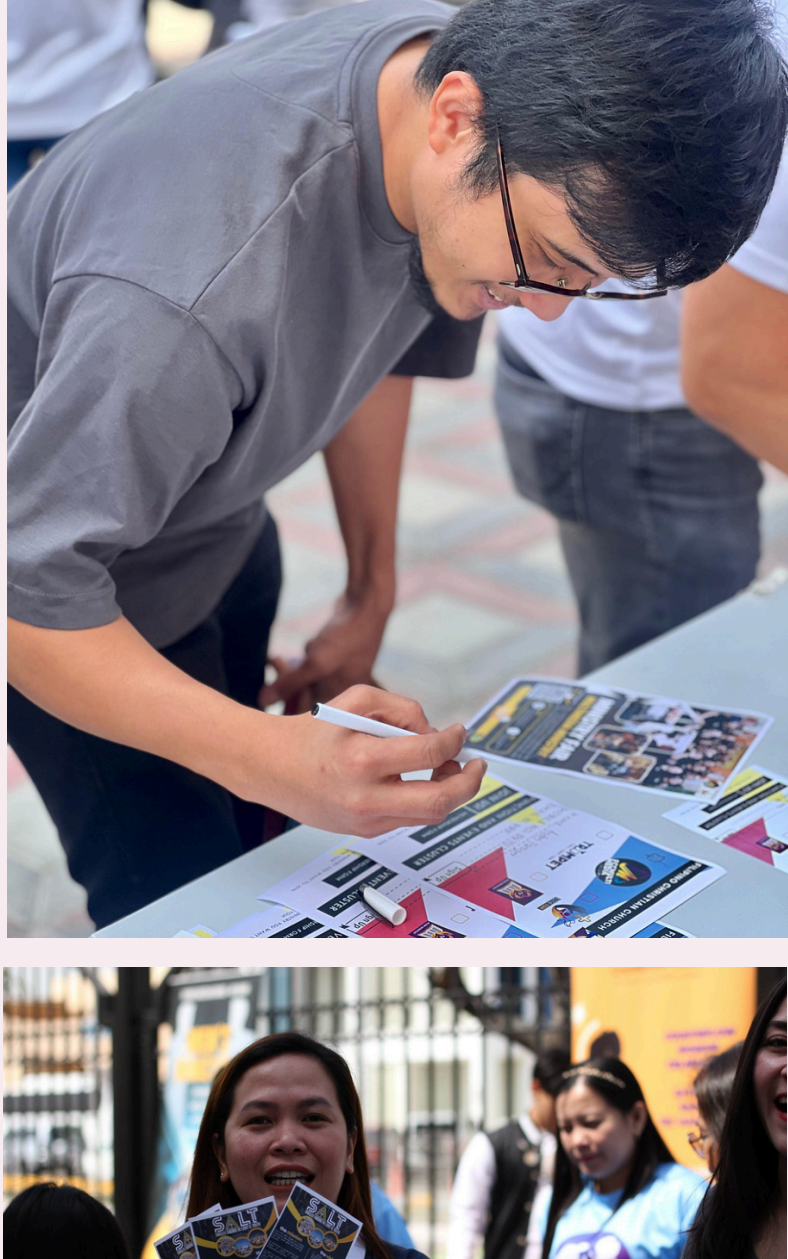

FROM SERVANT TO SHEPHERD PASTOR EDDZ'S ORDINATION

Another servant of God has stepped forward to join the fellowship of shepherds. On February 21, Pastor Edison Bautista was ordained as a Lay Pastor at FCC Abu Dhabi, with the ordination officiated by our pastors and witnessed by the congregation. A faithful servant and FCC member since 2006, Pastor Eds has devoted himself to various ministries, serving both God and His church. We thank the Lord for his life and calling, and pray he continues to faithfully shepherd the flock, leading the church in fulfilling God's mission.

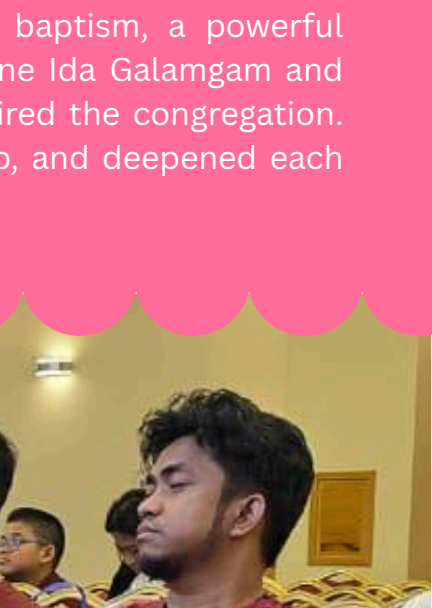

MINISTRY FAIR

On February 27 and 28, FCC Church became a vibrant hub of purpose and possibility during the Ministry Fair. Ministry booths came alive with creativity, conversations, and joyful laughter, reflecting a shared passion for service. From worship and missions to hospitality and outreach, each ministry showcased its unique calling and vision. Members explored opportunities, signed up with enthusiasm, and left inspired. More than an event, it was a celebration of faith in action, as we stepped forward together in joyful commitment and service.

The famous "love chapter" wasn't written for weddings!

1 Corinthians 13 was meant to teach the church how to love daily.

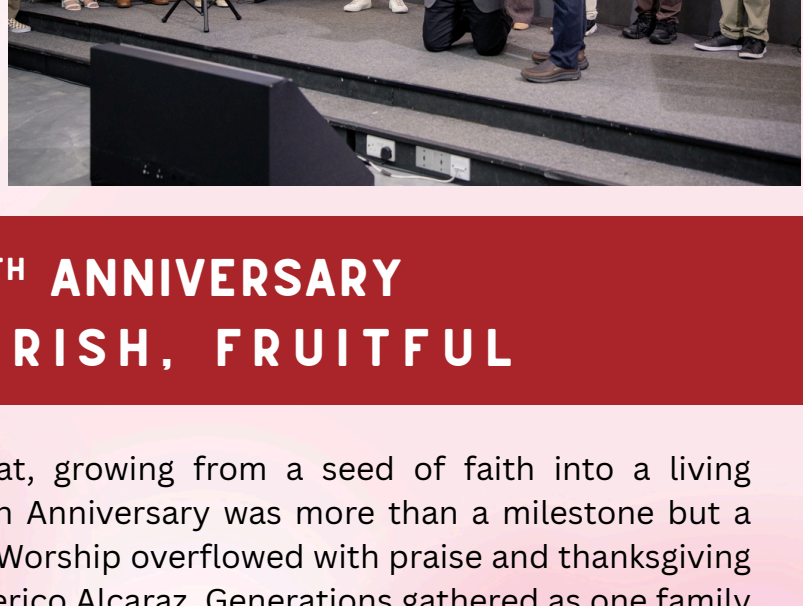

CGM GRADUATION

Following the completion of the CGM classes, Batch Abrahamic Covenant celebrated their graduation on February 13-15. Thirteen delegates faithfully fulfilled all course requirements, and twelve publicly affirmed their faith through baptism, a powerful declaration of renewed devotion and discipleship in Christ. Kristine Ida Galangam and Elijah Alcayde shared heartfelt testimonies that uplifted and inspired the congregation. The program cultivated spiritual maturity, strengthened fellowship, and deepened each one's commitment to the mission and calling of the Church.

DAUGHTER CHURCHES CORNER

FCC DUBAI'S 17TH ANNIVERSARY FAITHFUL, FLOURISH, FRUITFUL

Seventeen years have passed like a heartbeat, growing from a seed of faith into a living testimony of God's goodness. FCC Dubai's 17th Anniversary was more than a milestone but a declaration of His faithfulness in every season. Worship overflowed with praise and thanksgiving as we celebrated the ordination of Lay Pastor Jerico Alcaraz. Generations gathered as one family in Christ. Moving forward, we remain faithful, flourish in discipleship, and bear fruit in mission, all for God's glory.

FCC INTERCHURCH SPORTSFEST

With jerseys on and hearts ready, FCC Sports Fest 2026 transformed Royal Academy, Fujairah into a vibrant celebration of faith, fun, and fellowship on February 14. Daughter churches from Sharjah, Ajman, Umm Al Quwain, Fujairah, and Ras Al Khaimah gathered as one family, cheering, laughing, and competing joyfully. Volleyball and badminton matches sparked excitement, but beyond the games, God strengthened unity and friendships. More than a tournament, it was ministry in motion, glorifying Him on and off the court.

SILENT WORKERS

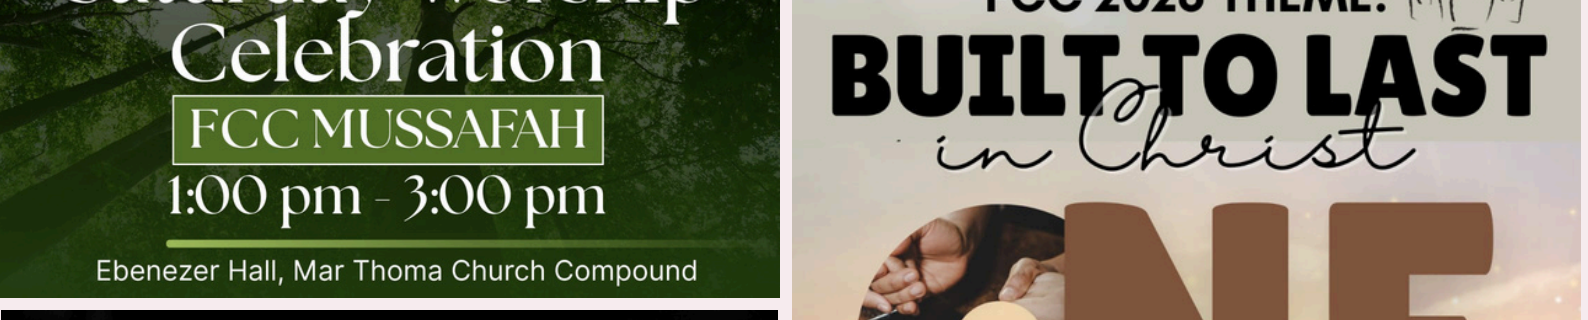

A SHARED CALLING: THE STRENGTH OF SERVING TOGETHER

Fifteen years into their marriage, Melvin and Bernadeth Lopez continue to show that ministry is not just an individual calling but a shared covenant. Since 2018, through Tentmakers Ministry, they have prayerfully surrendered their time, talents, and lives to God's service. Serving side by side requires unity and purpose, refining communication and deepening patience. Their commitment ripples into their home, anchoring their children in the joy and privilege of serving the Lord together.
